 Education officer committee report - Seminar next month. A motion was passed to pay Tim’s daughter $300 to make videos of each class that could be watched at a later date. The videos will be posted on a private youtube account. Attendees to the seminar will pay $20 to purchase the videos. Non-attendees can pay $200 for access to the videos with resulting CEU’s after passing tests about the classes. Non-attendees who do not need CEUs can purchase access to the videos for $100. Tim will have particular passwords for each purchaser so that the information can not be shared.
 AOM Day is October 24. As an organization, we will not participate this year (not enough time), but if you would like to participate with your private practice, all information can be found on www.aomday.org
