Minutes of December 14th 2008

Upcoming Meetings and Events

The quarterly meeting of the Oklahoma Acupuncture Association was held on December 14th, 2008 in the home of Amit Guman in Oklahoma City. As usual the food was outstanding and the potluck social preceded the business meeting. Also preceding the meeting was a presentation by Jeff Nicholson on the use of tuning forks to treat acupuncture points, or, Acutronics.

Members present were President Jamie Whartenby, Vice President Angela Brazeal, Secretary/Treasurer Deborah Bright, Amit Guman and fiancée Mickey, Jeff and Shirley Nicholson, Brandy Valentine (briefly due to a previous engagement), Mark Hovis, Tim Williamson, Nathan Schactor, Khanh Trang, Tran Van Quang, Dr. Xiaohoi Li, Yvonne Van Eijk, and Bhavani Oakley Indu.

The minutes from the previous meeting were read and approved and the financial statement was presented.

The date has been set and confirmed for April 18th and 19th for the next professional development workshop featuring Li Jun Feng, the head of the International Sheng Zhen Society Foundation, as well as its principal teacher. He is known as having been the head coach of the world-renowned Beijing Wushu Team of the People’s Republic of China for 15 years. He currently dedicates himself solely to the teaching and practice of the Sheng Zhen forms of qigong. He also serves as advisor to the World Academic Society of Medical Qigong and the Qigong Science Research Association of China. Here is a helpful link to the Wikipedia information about Li Jun Feng:

We agreed that Angela would contact the All Souls Unitarian Church as a possible location and Deborah will apply for the Association members to receive continuing education credits for the workshop with the NCCAOM. Trang also offered his dojo as a potential site for the workshop. A minimum of 30 people are required and deposits are due by March 20th. Deposits may be mailed to Deborah Bright at 311 S. Bristow, Drumright, OK 74030. The cost for the 2-day event is $200 and a deposit (amount TBD) is due by March 20th, 2009.

Members were encouraged to complete the application for certification by the Association before March 15th, 2009, while the $125.00 application fee is being waived.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Angela Brazeal in Tulsa, Oklahoma, on March 8th, the second Sunday in March from noon until 3 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Deborah Bright, Secretary- Treasurer
Oklahoma Acupuncture Association
